A ROAD MAP TO LOUDOUN'S COMMUNITY HEALTH

Teen Wellness, Substance Abuse, and Behavioral Health

October 18, 2018

9:00-9:30 | REGISTRATION

9:30-9:45 | WELCOME
Tracey White, Chair, Community Foundation of Loudoun and Northern Fauquier Counties,
Amy Owen, President & CEO, Community Foundation for Loudoun and Northern Fauquier Counties

PUTTING RACISM ON THE TABLE: A CONTINUED CONVERSATION
Amy Owen, President & CEO, Community Foundation for Loudoun and Northern Fauquier Counties

9:45-10:15 | CENSUS 2020: THREATS AND PROMISES
Gary D. Bass, Ph.D., Executive Director, Bauman Foundation

Introduced by Bo Machayo, Chief of Staff, Chair-At-Large Phyllis Randall, Loudoun County Board of Supervisors

10:15-10:45 | PANEL DISCUSSION: TEEN WELLNESS

Moderator: Suzie Bartel, Co-Founder, Ryan Bartel Foundation

John Walker, Ph.D., LMFT, Family Connections Program Manager, Loudoun County Department of Family Services
Tom Sweitzer, MMT, MT-BC, Co-Founder and Executive Director, A Place To Be Jennifer Wall, LPC, Supervisor of Student Assistance Services, Loudoun County Public Schools

10:45-11:00 | BREAK

11:00-11:30 | PANEL DISCUSSION: SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Moderator: Stacey Metcalfe, Director of Government and Community Relations, Inova Health System

Dan Luczak, President, Loudoun Club 12
Jim Freeman, Loudoun County Department of Community Corrections

11:30-12:00 | PANEL DISCUSSION: BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

Moderator: Carol Jameson, MSW, CEO, HealthWorks for Northern Virginia

Joey Coburn, Director of Development, Friends of Loudoun Mental Health
Michelle Mullany, LCSW, Vice President of Behavioral Health, Inova Health System
Michelle Petruzzello, LPC, Assistant Director, Loudoun County Department of Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Developmental Services

12:00-12:45 | LUNCH & KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Keynote Speaker: Jim Freund, Chair, Virginia State Addiction Policy Forum

Introduced by Valmarie Turner, Assistant County Administrator, Loudoun County

12:45-1:00 | CLOSING REMARKS
Patricia Mathews, CEO, Northern Virginia Health Foundation

---

Questions for our speakers? Visit www.slido.com, enter event code #PS2018

Share your experience! Use #PhilSummit2018
Additional Thanks to:
Kimberely Evans, Catering by Kimberely
The Robert Royal Foundation
Loudoun County Public Schools Office of Outreach
Our Speakers, Moderators, and Panelists

Amy Owen, has served as CEO and President of the Community Foundation for Loudoun and Northern Fauquier Counties since May 2012 and has been an executive in the community foundation arena since 2001. amy@communityfoundationlf.org

Tracey White, is Chair of the Board of Directors for the Community Foundation for Loudoun and Northern Fauquier Counties. She is also the Vice President of Community & Government Relations for HCA Virginia Health System. tracey.white@hcahealthcare.com

Gary D. Bass, Ph.D. is the Executive Director of the Bauman Foundation and an affiliated professor at Georgetown University’s McCourt School of Public Policy where he teaches social change and advocacy. Through the Bauman Foundation, he plays a leadership role in philanthropic circles on promoting a fair and accurate census, redistricting reforms, and other civic engagement issues, particularly those related to economic inequality and promoting government accountability. gbass@baumanfoundation.org

Bo Machayo is the Chief of Staff, Chair-at-Large Phyllis Randall, Loudoun County Board of Supervisors. bo.machayo@loudoun.gov

Suzie Bartel is the Co-Founder of the Ryan Bartel Foundation and mother of Ryan. She has 30+ years of experience as a business and marketing executive. After losing her oldest son Ryan to suicide in 2014, Suzie turned their tragedy into something positive by helping other teens from wanting to end it all when times get tough. Partnering with a group of teens, she started the We're All Human Committee in 2015, now implemented across LCPS. In 2018, Suzie launched the FORT, a community space for young people to connect and build resiliency. suzie.bartel@gmail.com

John Walker, Ph.D., LMFT, is the Program Manager of Family Connections, a program of the Loudoun County Department of Family Services, and an AAMFT (American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy) approved supervisor. With a long career serving adolescents and families in mental health and school settings, John has taught courses as an adjunct professor in family therapy, crisis intervention, and resiliency. In addition to his role as the Family Connections Program Manager, he maintains a private practice in Herndon, Virginia, and has become known as the “therapist for helpers,” working with professionals experiencing vicarious trauma and compassion fatigue.

Tom Sweitzer, MMT, MT-BC, is Co-Founder and Executive Director of A Place To Be, a nonprofit organization serving over 400 families weekly, offering Music and Expressive Arts Therapy. Tom leads A Place To Be with Co-Founder Kim Tapper and has created several therapeutic musical productions that focus on acceptance, diversity, and empathy that tours schools. Most recently, his rock opera, A Will to Survive, performed at the Terrace Theater at The Kennedy Center. He is an adjunct professor at Shenandoah University and an area consultant in the field of music therapy. He recently was the subject of a new documentary, Music Got Me Here, along with Forrest Allen, a young man with traumatic brain injury who found his voice through music therapy. tom@aptbmusictherapy.org

Jennifer Wall, LPC, serves as the Supervisor of Student Assistance Services at Loudoun County Public Schools. With over 17 years of experience working with adolescents and adults with substance use and mental health concerns, she supervises the student assistance specialists who provide substance use prevention and intervention services. She coordinates a PEER Program in each high school and ongoing implementation of the Sources of Strength Program. She serves as a member of many interagency organizations, including: Prevention Alliance of Loudoun, Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth, Community Corrections Justice Board, Community Health Needs Assessment, Juvenile Justice Steering Committee, and the Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative. jennifer.wall@lcps.org

Stacey Metcalfe serves as the Director of Government and Community Relations for Inova Loudoun Hospital and has 30+ years of both corporate and nonprofit leadership experience. She serves on the boards of the Loudoun Chamber as their Second Vice Chair, the Executive Council of the Loudoun School-Business Partnership, and the Ryan Bartel Foundation. She is the Development Co-Chair for the Commission on Women and Girls and the Vice Chair of the Loudoun Chamber’s Public Policy Committee. stacey.metcalfe@inova.org

Dan Luczak is President of Loudoun Club 12, a nonprofit organization devoted to recovery from alcoholism and substance abuse for individuals and their families. Dan has served on the Board of Directors since 2015, and has served as President since 2018. danluczak@hotmail.com

Jim Freeman has served as Director of Loudoun County Department of Community Corrections since 2013. With over 30 years in the field, he previously served as Deputy Chief of Probation and Parole District 25 serving the Counties of Loudoun, Fauquier, and Rappahannock and is a Certified Substance Abuse Counselor, with experience providing assessments and group counseling to probationers. He also served on the Board of Loudoun Club 12 from 2014-2018. In 2006, he was recognized as Virginia Probation and Parole Line Officer of the Year. Jim.Freeman@loudoun.gov
Our Speakers, Moderators, and Panelists

Carol Jameson, MSW is Chief Executive Officer of HealthWorks for Northern Virginia, Loudoun's nonprofit community health center, with three sites in Leesburg, Sterling, and Herndon. HealthWorks provides comprehensive primary medical, dental and behavioral health care to primarily low income, uninsured individuals of all ages. She is also Chair of the Loudoun Human Services Network. She has 30 years of nonprofit experience in the Northern Virginia leading programs and organizations providing access to health care services to those who are undeserved. She previously served as the Executive Director of a free clinic in Herndon and with Northern Virginia Family Services for many years. c jameson@hw nova.org

Joey Heather Coburn is the Director of Development for Friends of Loudoun Mental Health. Joey has worked in nonprofit health and human services development and fundraising for most of her career. Her early days were spent with American Red Cross and National Kidney Foundation. At NKF, she developed their grants and planned giving program and was responsible for raising $1.725 million net dollars annually. Currently she works as a contractor consultant for Friends of Loudoun Mental Health, developing and implementing their fundraising program from the ground up. jo ey@lOUNDounfriends.org

Michelle Mullany, LCSW is the Vice President of Behavioral Health for the Inova Health System. Since 2016, Michelle has served as the executive leader for behavioral health where she oversees strategy and day-to-day operations of three hospital-based acute care units, two Partial Hospitalization Programs, five outpatient clinics, a comprehensive substance abuse program, and adolescent services. She oversees the Inova Psychiatric Assessment center, a community based walk-in clinic for medication evaluation, and 24-7 tele-psychiatry evaluation center. She previously served as the Clinic Director for the Department of Veterans Affairs in Manhattan and for the SUNY Downstate Medical Center. She is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps where she served as Military Police. michelle.mullany@inova.org

Michelle Petruzzello, LPC is the Assistant Director of Loudoun County Department of Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Developmental Services. Michelle began working for her department in 2001 and has served as Assistant Director since 2013. She has over 20 years of clinical and leadership experience. She has worked in various treatment settings with individuals who present with a diverse range of mental health and substance abuse issues across all ages. In her tenure with MHSADS, she has implemented multiple initiatives within Loudoun County in collaboration with partners, including expanding Mental Health First Aid and REVIVE! trainings, facilitating Loudoun County's Crisis Intervention Team and opening the CIT Assessment Center, implementing a Mental Health Docket, and embedding primary care within MHSADS. michelle.petruzzello@loudoun.gov

Valmarie Turner serves as Assistant County Administrator for Loudoun County. In her role, she oversees the Departments of Community Corrections, Family Services, Mental Health and Substance Abuse and Developmental Services, and serves as a liaison to the Health Department, Juvenile Court Service Unit and Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. valmarie.turner@loudoun.gov

Jim Freund lost his son, Scott, to addiction when he was 20 years old. For the past give years, Jim has been dedicated to finding solutions that will save other families from the suffering he and his family have had to endure. As the Virginai State Co-Chair of the Virginia State Addiction Policy Forum, he works to support, promote, and collaborate with others in the addiction community to advance knowledge and translate discoveries about substance use disorder and its complications into practical solutions that make everyday life better or people living with or at-risk for addiction. He has presented in numerous forums, including the President’s Commission on Combating Drug Addiction and the Opioid Crisis. jfreund@addictionpolicy.org

Patricia Mathews is the first President & CEO of Northern Virginia Health Foundation, a private foundation created in 2005 whose mission is to improve the health and health care of residents of Northern Virginia, with particular emphasis on the health of the uninsured. In addition to grantmaking, her role at the Foundation includes developing coalitions and collaboratives. She has been instrumental in creating and supporting the Northern Virginia Health Services Coalition, the first multi-jurisdictional coalition of primary care safety net providers in Northern Virginia. She has also been a guiding force behind the creation of the Northern Virginia Oral Health Safety Net Coalition. Under her leadership, the first Northern Virginia Community Health Indicator report was created and released in 2013, focusing on the health disparities of residents in the region. Prior to joining the Foundation, she served for more than seven years as Executive Director, Community Relations at Kaiser Permanente—Mid-Atlantic States, where she annually managed more than $12 million in charitable assets and oversaw programs that provided charitable health care to more than 5,000 uninsured adults and children, and helped to develop a strategic framework for addressing the issues of healthy eating/active living in the region. She currently serves as a member of the Board of Grantmakers In Health, a member of the Healthy Communities Working Group of Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers, and a member of the Women’s Advisory Group of the Girl Scout Council of the Nation’s Capital. She has also served on the board of directors of the Council on Foundations, and is a past chair of Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers. Ms. Mathews is a graduate of Leadership Greater Washington. p mathews@nova healthfdn.org